

Stefan Schlögl, Wolfgang Hartl

Napoleon schläft mit Mona Lisa

The whole truth about the emperor of fake news

With 200 Illustrations

192 Pages, premium layout and quality

Hardcover, 19 x 24 cm

ISBN 978-3-9504721-8-9

€ 33,-

October 2021

Napoleon – the whole truth

Witty, offbeat, inventive: Over 200 illustrations from two centuries present one of the most controversial figures in history. With subtle humour, Stefan Schlögl and Wolfgang Hartl reveal the whole truth about the emperor of fake news.

How many of the stories we are told about Napoleon Bonaparte, his masterstrokes, foibles and love life are actually true? How much of it is mere rumour? And what tricks did the politically astute strategist use to set himself up as the first master of fake news?

Now, to mark the 200th anniversary of his death, we present: The whole truth! Illustrator Wolfgang Hartl and author Stefan Schlögl set off on the trail of the great little Corsican. Their investigations not only reveal “alternative facts” and legends but also offer an interpretation of Napoleon, the myth, that reaches to the present day.

The book plays brilliantly with historical propaganda and the power of images and brings history back to life with its meticulously reworked engravings and prints.

What is fact? What is fake? You decide!

In the Media: Reviews in ORF TV, Radio and on orf.at (Austrian Broadcasting Corporation), in Die Presse, Falter - Vienna weekly, Der Standard, ...

www.edition5haus.at

Contact

Magda Hassan: +43 676-3466007, magda.hassan@edition5haus.at